ABOUT US

VIS is an innovative and recognizable company with tradition in producing textile ever since 1929. As the leading regional manufacturer of natural and artificial fibres, VIS places the customer and his satisfaction at the focus of its business philosophy.

In order to satisfy the wishes and demands of all customers, the company's production is based on a modern printing and textile processing technology. Due to investments and modernization, the entire manufacturing process, from weaving to the finished product, is done according to the highest standards of quality and in accordance with ISO 9001:2015 and ISO 14001:2015.

Basic competitive advantages of VIS are reflected in rounded manufacturing process – from weaving the fabric to finished products, because this is the process which enables the quality control at each stage of production and accelerated process of producing finished products.

Thanks to the quality of the products, the implementation of modern technological processes and the orientation towards the customer, VIS today is one of the leading manufacturers of promotional and technical textile products in Europe.

VIS' mission is to design and manufacture promotional and other textile products whose particular advantages will enhance its customers' own value.

VIS is aware that its mission can only be made possible if each of its employees is able to offer an “additional service”, that is, to dedicate special care to the excellence of the product itself. VIS' common task is to protect and improve the social responsibility of the company itself during this process, and contribute to the protection of the environment.

VIS' vision is to become a leading company globally for the manufacture of promotional and other textile products, as well as to introduce new standards in textile manufacturing.

PARASOLS

VIS PROMOTIONAL PARASOLS

VIS promotional parasols are at the same time a means of communication and a medium and as such represent the most feasible way of communicating your product or your brand.

Parasols are the only promotional tool that unifies three qualities: outdoor marketing, sales promotion, functional product.

As a product of impeccable functionality, VIS parasols guarantee the quality of material and manufacture.

As a sales promotion tool, VIS parasols are at the very spot where the decision to buy is made and thus stimulate the acquisition of your product. Finally, as a tool of outdoor marketing, VIS parasols enable the maximum visibility of your brand. The visibility of the printed message from both the inside and the outside of the parasol guarantees the ideal exposure of the consumer to the message.

All of the above combine for the communication and sales effect of VIS parasols.

Flags, Banners and Beach Flags

Flags

VIS flags and banners have the first-class reputation for quality, service and experience. Throughout a period of many years, we have developed the highest quality products in all sizes and quantities, from national flags of various sizes, including advertising banners and flags for the promotion of products and the company itself, to the small table and boat flags. Having extensive experience in our work, we develop our products starting from the concept and design including their final production.

Banners

Beach Flags

VIS flags and banners decorate the public institutions, protocol receptions, companies, hospitals, churches, community organizations, non-profit organizations, sports competitions and many other facilities or events. VIS flags and banners are made of the best quality VIS fabrics of different composition and type of weaving, printed by automatic industrial or digital full color printing, depending on the intended use of a product for its end use.

Chair Cushions, Lazy Bags and Beach Mats

In our product range we also offer promotional chairs - lazy bags, chair cushions and beach mats of various sizes and colors with an option of a print or embroidery, all tailored to your needs. Just like any other VIS products, VIS promotional chair cushions and beach mats guarantee the high quality of materials and workmanship.

As a means of sales promotion, VIS promotional chair cushions are found on the spot where a decision on a purchase is being made and thus stimulate the consumption of your product. Finally, as a means of outdoor advertising, VIS promotional chair cushions contribute to the maximum visibility of your brand thus directly providing both communication and sales effect.

VIS promotional bean bags, known as "LAZY BAGS", or VIS promotional beach mats tailored in the exact shape of your product, can be used as a perfect incentive tool that will stimulate the sale of your product regardless of whether it is used in a prize winning game or in a promotion / event at a point of sale or any other marketing activity.

Aprons

VIS promotional aprons are both a means of communication and the media as a promotional tool which encompasses the three qualities in one: a means of advertising, a means of sales promotion and a functional product.

They are made from high quality blend of cotton and polyester, where polyester prevents creasing of the fabric, while cotton allows the absorption of fluids. This is exactly what is the most important to their users, namely, impeccable look and durable functionality. When we additionally include the feature of your brand in the form of embroidery or print, with an option to choose any color substrate from the Pantone color chart, we get a perfect functional tool for every caterer, and at the same time a means of communication with your customers aimed at achieving the best sales performance.
